Diary Entry Planning: I Felt Extremely Proud of My Achievement

Think about a time when you achieved something special or important to you.
Use these questions to help you plan your diary entry. Remember to write in the first person (use 'I') and in the past tense.

1. What did you achieve?

Write about what you did that made you feel proud.
Example: I came first in the spelling competition.

2. When and where did it happen?

Talk about the day, place, or situation when it happened.
Example: It happened last Friday in our school hall.

3. Who was there with you?

Think about the people who saw you achieve this - your friends, teacher, or family.
Example: My classmates, my teacher, and my parents were all there.

4. What did you do to prepare or work towards this achievement?

Explain what effort you put in or how you worked hard for it.
Example: I practised every day after school and asked my teacher for extra words.

5. How did you feel when it happened?

Describe your feelings at that moment - use strong words.
Example: I felt so proud, excited, and happy that I wanted to jump and shout!

6. What did other people say or do when you achieved it?

Write about how others reacted - did they clap, smile, congratulate you?
Example: Everyone clapped for me and my teacher gave me a big smile.

7. What did you do after your achievement?

Diary Entry Planning: I Felt Extremely Proud of My Achievement

Did you celebrate, tell someone, or do something special?

Example: After school, my parents took me for ice cream to celebrate.

8. What did you learn from this experience?

Talk about what you learned or how it changed you.

Example: I learned that hard work and practice really pay off.

Guidance for Writing Your Four Paragraphs

When you write your diary entry, use your planning answers to form four clear paragraphs.

? Paragraph 1: Use answers from questions 1, 2, and 3.
(Explain what happened, where and when it happened, and who was there.)

? Paragraph 2: Use answers from question 4.
(Describe how you worked hard or prepared for your achievement.)

? Paragraph 3: Use answers from questions 5 and 6.
(Explain how you felt and how others reacted.)

? Paragraph 4: Use answers from questions 7 and 8.
(Write what you did afterwards and what you learned from the experience.)

Remember: Write in full sentences and show your emotions clearly.
