Nat and Tas went out. They went down to the stream. There was a shack next to the stream.

"Look at that shack," said Nat. "There is a little duck by that shack. The little duck looks lost. It has lost its mom and dad."

Nat and Tas saw lots of ducks across the stream.

"There are some ducks," said Nat. "They are big ducks. This little duck must go to them."

"I will go and get the little duck," said Tas.

Tas went to get the little duck. The little duck ran away from Tas. It ran to the stream. It swam across the stream. Tas ran to the stream. His foot went in the stream.

"My sock is wet!" said Tas.

"We must go," said Nat. "Your wet sock will make you sick."
